

Statement on Essex MPs Standing Down

I am sorry to hear that Sir Alan Haselhurst MP has decided to follow Sir Eric Pickles MP and Sir Simon Burns MP and will also be standing down from Parliament at the forthcoming General Election.

Between them they have served the people of Essex for over ninety years. Their knowledge and experience will be greatly missed.

I know that they will support their successors in their respective constituencies with wise council and that this will enable a smooth transition.